This is

JOHN CARROLL

. . . . more than a tract of land encompassing students and professors . . . laboratories and libraries . . . lawns and buildings—all occupied with the common function of the education of the whole man, utilizing classes, lectures, forums, retreats.

. . . . Like, yet unlike, other universities, John Carroll has an atmosphere distinctively its own. In this the XVII volume of the Carillon we present some highlights of the year's passing.

. . . . Administration and Faculty represent the guideposts of our journey along the academic avenues: they introduce the chronicle. Each season of the year features an individual undergraduate class . . .

. . . . September and Autumn, the time of orientation and adjustment characteristic of the Freshmen. Winter and Spring are the heralds of Sophomores and Juniors. Then, June! and poised at the threshold of Summer and Commencement, the Seniors, products of four years' nurturing for the service of God, Country, and Carroll.

. . . . Athletic, Social, and Organizational activities complement our education and our book. Throughout, the sands of the hourglass illustrate the passing of time . . . .

Guideposts of Advancement

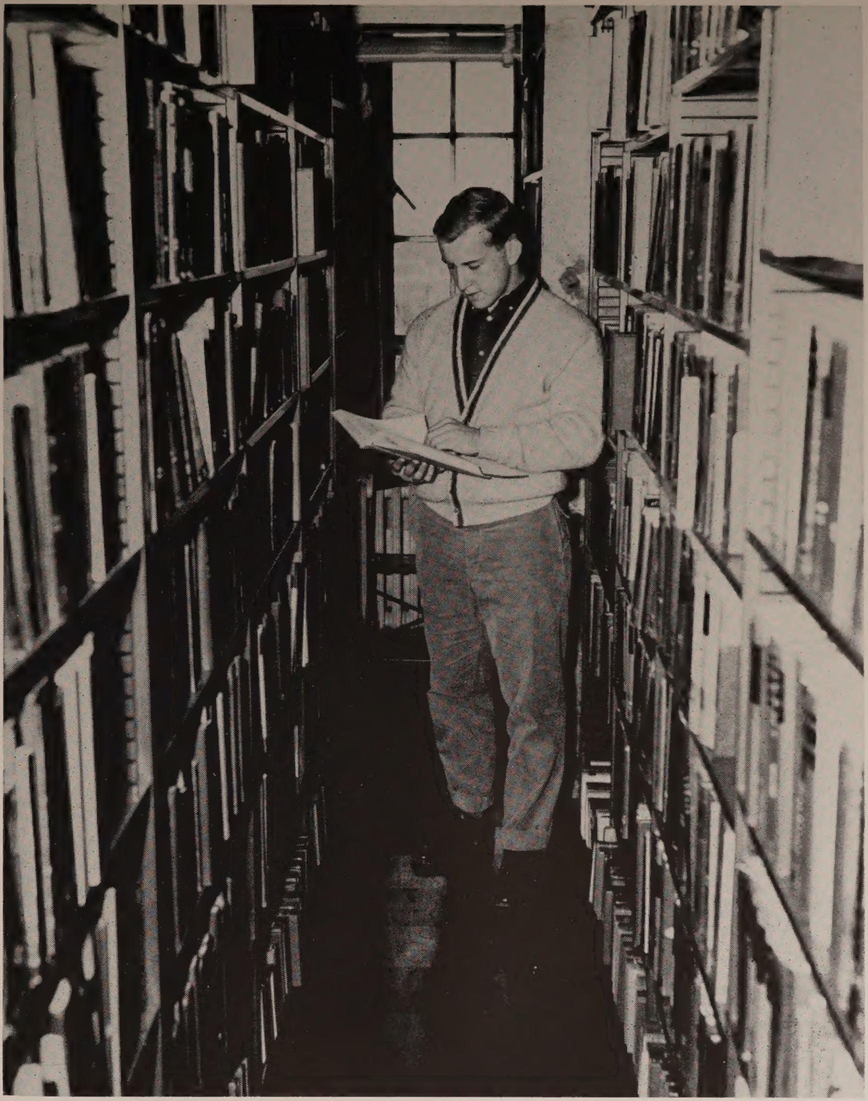
Bishop Begin and Father Dunn are photographed at the recent commencement exercises.

Athletics

The undefeated Blue Streaks again this year, captured the PAC crown.

Scholarship

The library becomes well known to every student throughout the school year.



Social Activities

The development of the social aspects of every student's character is an important element in college training.

We are educated by Community Contact

Cultural Opportunities

Since John Carroll is nestled in the outskirts of a large metropolitan area, Cleveland offers abundant opportunity for the student to supplement his formal education.

The Canadian Players presentation of the "Taming of the Shrew", was just one of the many opportunities which afforded the student a contact with art in its various forms at the University.

Pursuit of Ultimate Values

The insistence on the cultivation of Christian values instills in the conscience of the student a desire towards the proper fulfillment of his religious duties.

Dedication

Politics is not a science, as many of our professors imagine, but an art.—Bismarck

When Edward Coleman Reilley was graduated from John Carroll University in 1932 with a Bachelor of Arts degree, in both retrospect and prospect learning and scholarship were his.

In retrospect: a diploma, granted and inscribed magna cum laude; the Msgr. Pfeil Gold Medal, awarded for the highest grades in philosophical studies; the Senior Scholarship Gold Medal.

An academic success as a philosophy major, history and Latin minor, he could reflect further upon his accomplishments as violinist with the University orchestra, French horn tooter for the band, organist for chapel services.

In prospect? A master of arts degree in history from John Carroll University in 1933; the doctor of philosophy degree earned at Western Reserve University and granted in 1940; appointment to the John Carroll University faculty as an instructor in history in 1935.

Versed in his academic disciplines of history, political science, and government, versatile in imparting his instruction, Dr. Reilley would teach European and American History; American Federal, State, and Municipal Government; Economics and Business Administration; naval history and strategy. And in 1957 the culmination: appointment—Director of the Department of Governmental Administration.

No venerator of the shibboleths of politics, unimpressed by the traditional, but often facile interpretations of history, his is not the arid scholarship of dusty data, but the continually questioning, re-evaluating, realistic analyses of men, their motives, and their deeds. Combining the skill of scholarship with the artfulness of wit, he spikes sham and penetrates pretense, erecting in their stead solidly-grounded and factually accurate constructs of history and civic administration.

A member of the Ohio Academy of History and the American Society for Public Administration, Dr. Reilley has published articles in the Ohio State Archeological and Historical Quarterly, the Irish-American Quarterly, and the Carroll Business Bulletin on topics ranging from "Seriously Now, Let's Abolish the States" to "The Early Entrepreneurial History of Cleveland Business Organizations."

Edward C. Reilley
A.M., Ph.D.

To Professor Edward Reilley, on the occasion of his 25th anniversary as a member of the John Carroll faculty we affectionately and respectfully dedicate this volume XVII of the Carillon.

Dr. Reilley confers with Dr. Noetzel, Dean of the School of Business.

Edward C. Reilley, educator of men.

Fall FRESHMEN

The Fall of the year accents the beginning of a new school term, the return of the upperclassmen and the arrival of the freshmen. The reorganization of campus groups, football rallies, mixers, and convocations, signal the start of another year. Registration, orientation, and confusion, is typified by the first year men as they make their adjustment to college life. Hello Week, Kangaroo Court, and the Push Ball, further molds the new class into Men of Carroll.

Two seniors take time out from unpacking for a game of cards.

I Chi Art Brickel makes another beanie sale.

Orientation

The strength of Grasselli Tower impresses tradition upon the freshman.

"No beanie no wienie," is the popular call at the frosh picnics.

“There is nothing like the RO to make a man out of you.”

The seal is scrubbed by a couple of ambitious men during Hello week.

Registration

Mr. More of the School of Business, offers assistance to Dave Fleishauer and Jim Reilly.

Seniors register for Military Science sections.

Friendly advice from the Classical Languages Department is given to John Barton.

Alpha Sigma Nu president, Dennis McGrath, opens the first convocation welcoming the freshmen to the various campus organizations.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Peter Hoffman, President; Tim Gauntner, Treasurer; Michael Fegen, Vice President; Leon St. Marie, Secretary.

Kangaroo Court

The freshmen are met at the formal receiving line by the court appointed magistrates.

One of the more recalcitrant defendants is restrained.

In keeping with the tradition of Hello Week, the mock Kangaroo Court convened on Thursday night in the practice field to hear the case of the sophomore vs. freshman class. The defendants were charged with various infractions of the freshman code, such as failure to observe the beanie statute. Court appointed prosecutors read the charge to Chief Potentate Warren Arthur. The defendant was then given a brief moment to enter his plea of innocence before the sentence was passed. Needless to say, the sophomores won a majority of the biased decisions. Police officers, consisting of the more athletic members of the sophomore class, maintained a somewhat orderly court room atmosphere despite the frequent insurrections. After the eggs, water paint, syrup and shaving cream were removed; the frosh all knew the ordeal as one of the exciting experiences which molded them into "college life."

The peers await formal sentencing.

It's push, push, pull, as the freshmen score the final goal to win 3-2.

Push Ball Contest

Sophomores succeed in undermining the rear guard of the first year forces.

Class History

Carroll freshmen, like other college freshmen, are in the habit of arriving for the first day on the campus in vast rumbling caravans of mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, and grandmothers all bolstering the ambitious June graduate in his secret dreams of success at the University. With suitcases and trunks and bringing grey flannels, tennis rackets, golf clubs, letter sweaters and pictures of her we arrived.

We came from as far as away as Aruba in South America and as close as around the corner on Meadowbrook. In size we ranged from Bobby Kilbourne to Tommy Donovan. Within a few days we were injected into assembly line after assembly line, lectured to, ordered about, look at depreciatively, lectured to, and finally told "you'll buy that beanie and like it."

We vindicated ourselves from the ordeal of the first weeks when we shoved the sophomores all over the push-ball field. Our freshmen football team went undefeated. The Military Ball that year was our first big college dance and Richard Maltby made it memorable. That was the year of the big snow and when spring finally came it was for those in Pacelli to accept Fr. Schell's dictum on sunbathing on the roof.

As innocent frosh we discovered that at Notre Dame in Cleveland the students only look like football players. Back in '56 Jim Shannon was a kid from Chicago who lived off campus and belonged to the P.R.'s.

The year ended, "not with a bang but a whimper," as final exams took their toll. We had changed far more than we knew; not until returning home did we realize just how great our experience had been. Then a summer all too short, and back to Carroll, sans caravan this time.

Pacelli Hall, with its erratic showers, midnight bowling, and never-ending curfew battle were soon all too familiar. As sophomores, '60 was the first class in Carroll history not to lose the push-ball contest. The Beave went back on the prowl. For the most part the Dorm was quiet as Pandemonium. We resumed the mighty ordeal of dismal dinners amidst butter battles. Against Xavier we christened our sports palace. The Brown Baggers renewed their pinochle pursuits. The sophomores, search for a major was typified by the first of countless changes by Dave Marr.

In our junior year we moved over to the Bernet zoo and stocked the cages with The Snake, The Rat, The Wish, The Bear, The Stark, The Bison and of course, the Beaver. During the year the class of '60 said goodby to Fr. Millor and his cigar-smoke as keeper. The Beave went back on the prowl. We lost a friend that year. The members of '60 were seen frequently at Sylvestros but never on the Thursday night. Off campus parties were still a rarity but by the time they graduated the class of '60 would change that tradition. There was a rash of expeditions to Lake Erie College. Jim Shannon became the acknowledged political boss on campus.

The Campus Commandoes, battle-hardened after summer camp, led the return of the seniors for their final fling. The gridiron onslaught started against Bethany and with the Jaw showing the way our football team rolled over everybody to the first undefeated, untied team in the history of Carroll. Homecoming was the biggest and best yet. We pointed all year for Reserve and none of us, or Eddie Finnegan will ever forget Schweickert on that day. In addition some of '60 will always vividly remember the day before the Reserve game. The man with the keys to the kingdom of Carroll, George Growney, endeared himself to every frosh.

Some members of '60 contemplated the altar with a certain wishfullness. Others merely contemplated. Tri-Ad becomes a familiar term and the smoother set held suite parties for those who liked gracious living.

Keim came through in the clutch and our basketball team elbowed their way to the best record since 1921. We retained our habit of winning in Stunt Nite due in part to the sympathy exhibited in the skit by Tim Strader. We got Elgart for the prom and the tempo of that week-end was carried through Senior Week.

Nothing here has been said of exams, orals, comps and other such unimportant blemishes on the understanding that what is painfully obvious to all is best swept under the carpet.

On the other hand, much has been left out of here by necessity and discretion. We'll never forget the beginning and it really hasn't ended.

So long gentlemen. See you twenty-five from now.

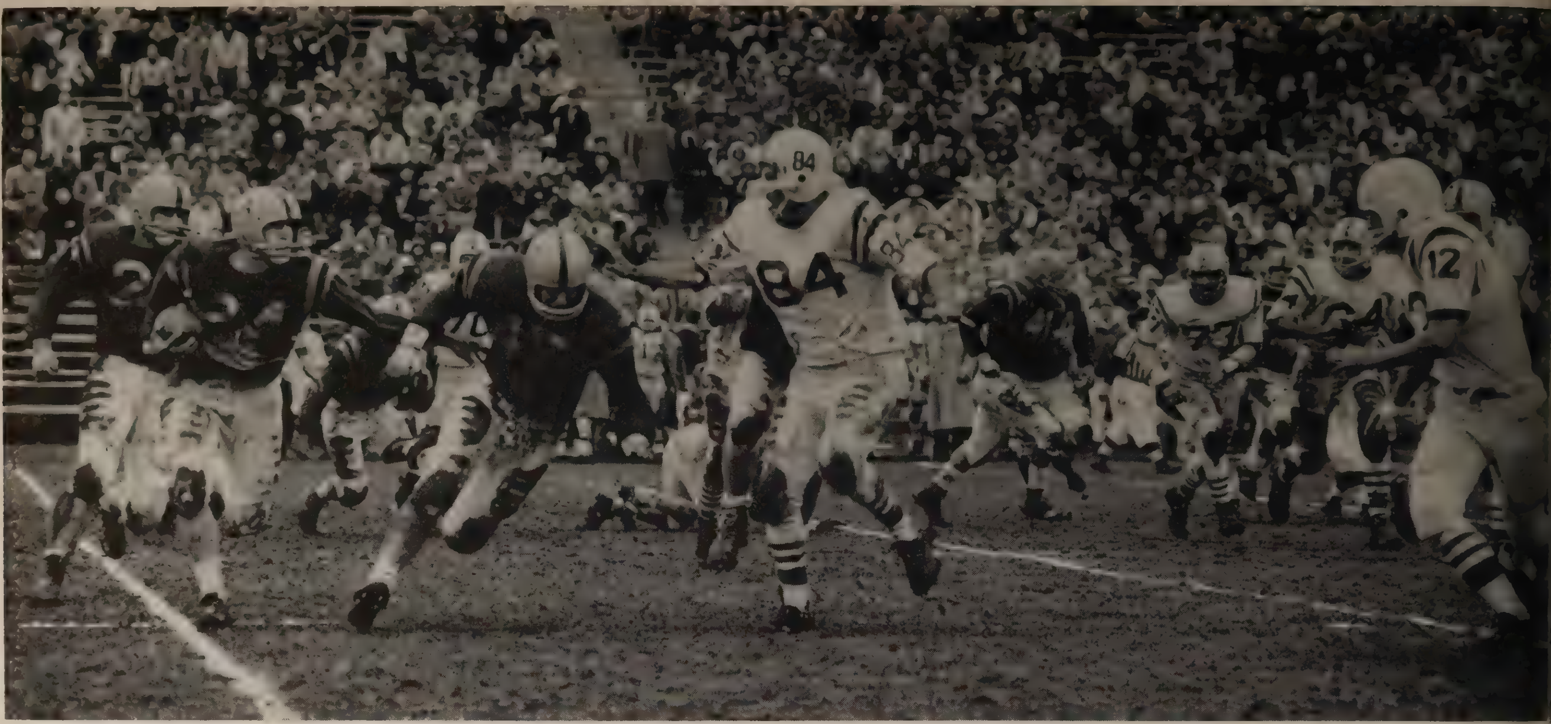
Carroll fans brave the inclement weather to cheer the undefeated Blue Streaks.



With blocking by Bill Matejka, Jerry Schweickert scampers around right end, against Reserve.

CARROLL 45 — BETHANY 0

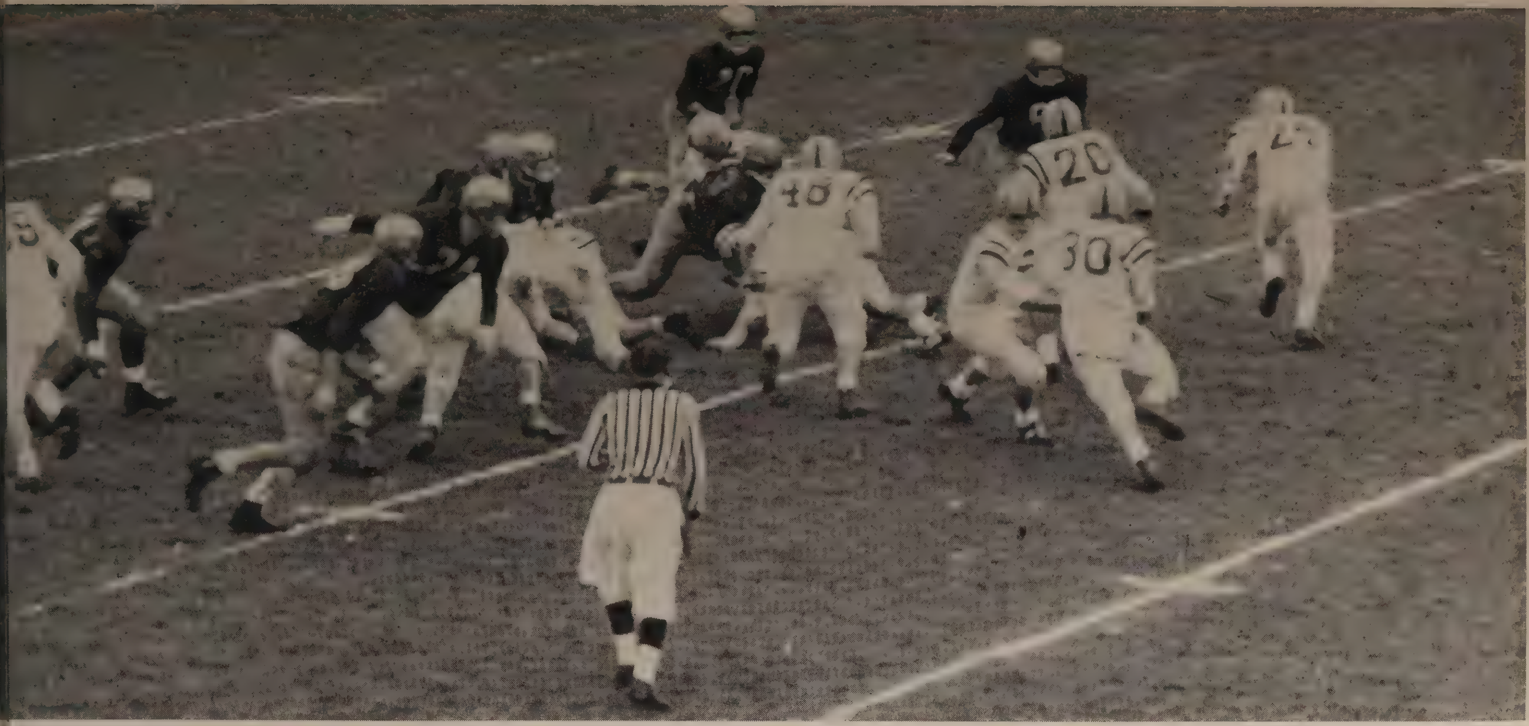
Before a cheering crowd at Hosford Field, the Streaks romped to a 45-0 victory in the opener against Bethany College of West Virginia. Bethany was limited to only 125 yards as opposed to Carroll's 489.

Leading the charge was quarterback Jerry O' Malley who netted 153 yards for the day. Bill Marks, who gained 86 yards in seven carries and scored two touchdowns, was the leading ground gainer of the day. Bob Fitzgerald also stood out in snagging four passes for 74 yards and one touchdown.

CARROLL 33 — WAYNESBURG 14

Carroll won its second game of the season as it rallied in the second and fourth quarters to amass 413 yards. Halfback Frank Walton and fullback Lou Thomas each tallied twice. Halfback Jack Green hauled in a 60 yard pass from quarterback Pete Pucher to account for the Carroll scoring. Waynesburg was held to a minus eleven yards on the ground and 160 in the air for a 149 yard total.

Lou Thomas attempts to buck a strong Tarter line for the necessary yardage.



O'Malley hands off to Frank Walton for a sizable gain off tackle against Wayne State.

CARROLL 40 — WAYNE 0

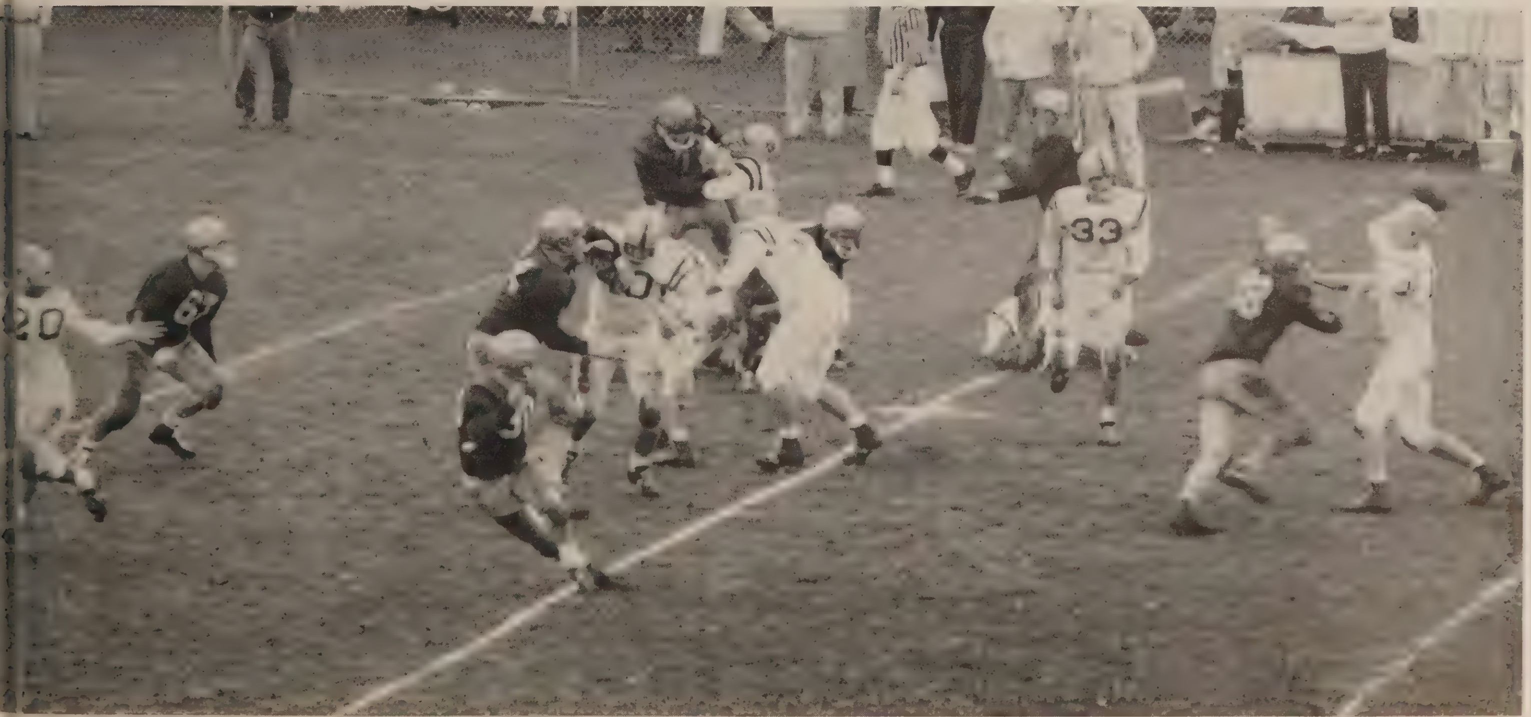
The Blue Streaks, taking advantage of several early breaks, routed Wayne State 40-0 on a rain-soaked field in the annual Homecoming game. Jerry O'Malley passed six yards to Bob Fitzgerald for the second touchdown shortly after sneaking over from the one-yard line for the first TD. Later in the half, Bill Marks and Pete Pucher each circled his own left end for tallies. After the half-time ceremonies, Jerry Schweickert scored with a brilliant 78-yard punt return. The scoring was capped by a 62-yard drive with Tom O'Malley taking the ball in for the score.

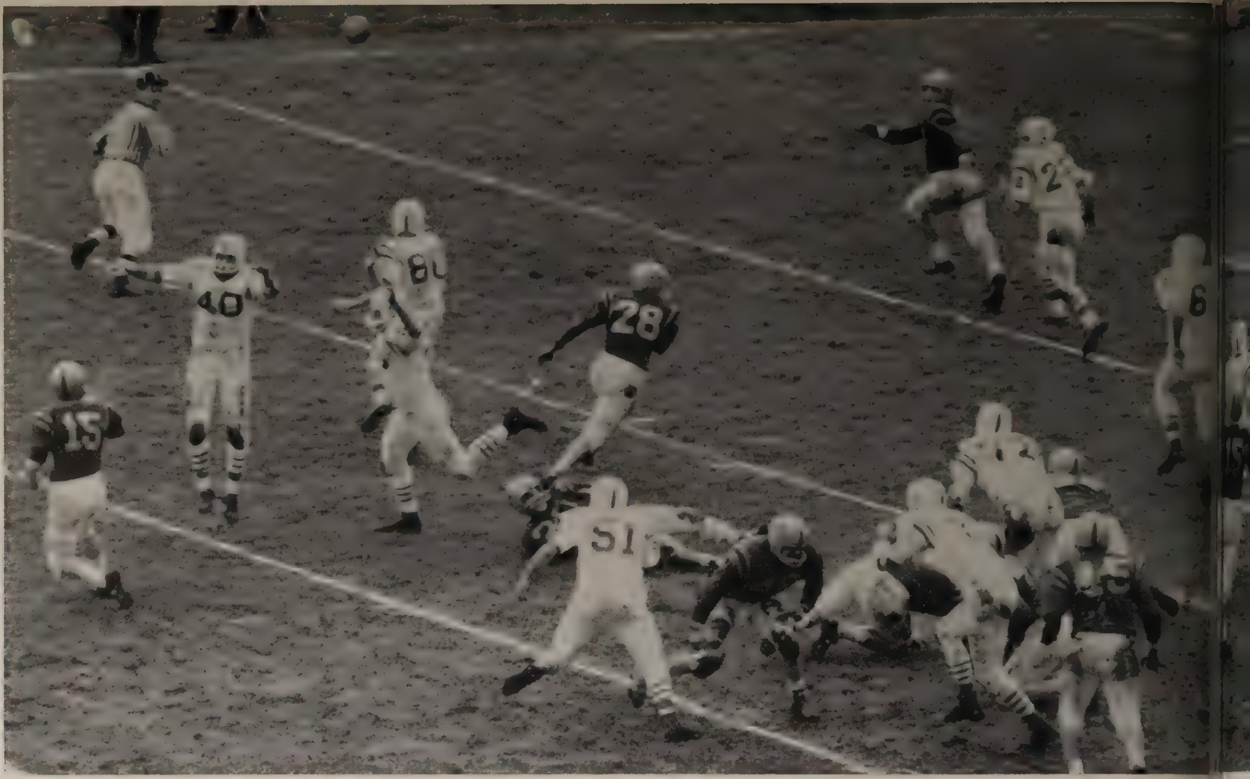
CARROLL 48 — CASE 6

The Streaks unleashed their biggest scoring barrage of the season in crushing Case Tech 48-6 at Clark Field. The victory, third straight in conference play, put Carroll at the top of the heap in the P.A.C. Setting the pace were halfbacks Jerry Schweickert and Frank Walton. Fullback Bill Marks accounted for 246 of the Streaks 394 yards in rushing. Case was held to 135 yards on the ground.

Walton scored twice on short runs of three and four yards while Marks raced 63 yards for another tally. Touchdowns were also chalked up by Schweickert, Jack Green, Pete Pucher and Tom Popelka.

At the last possible second, Pete Pucher lofts one into the waiting arms of Lou Thomas.



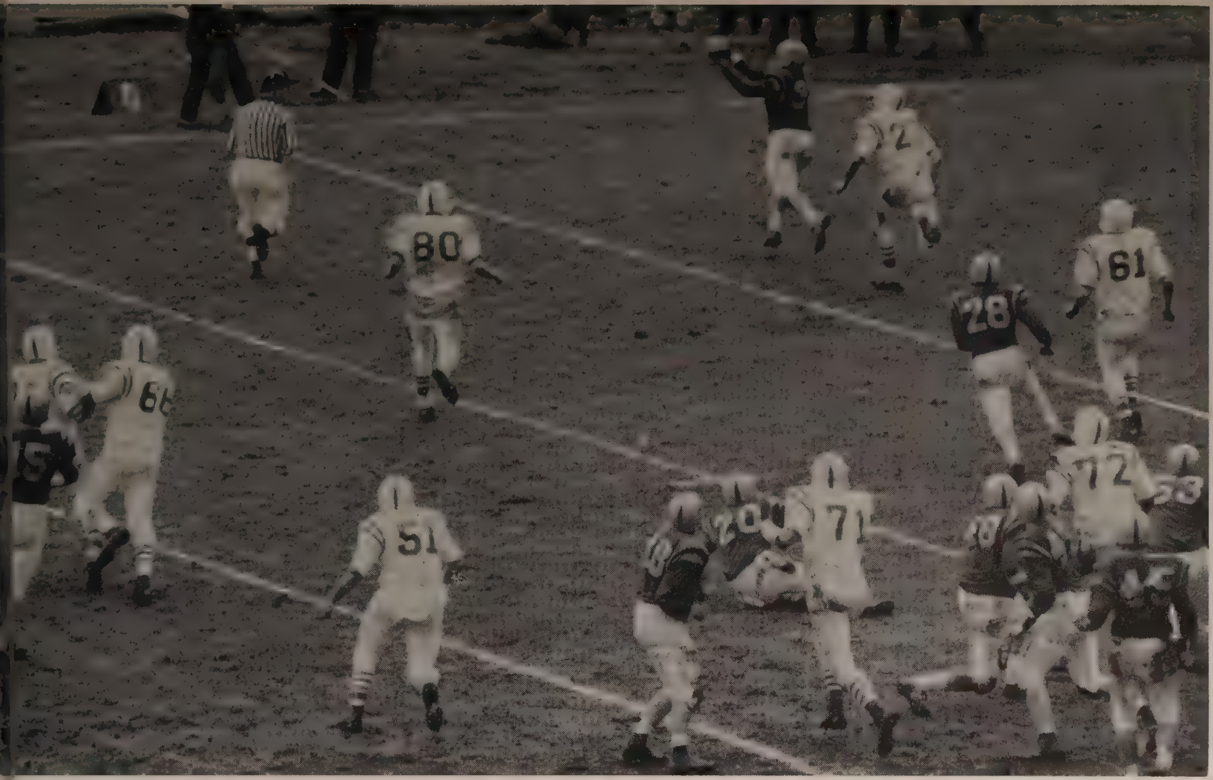


Against Reserve Jerry O'Malley lofts a perfectly timed pass . . . .

CARROLL 12 — THIEL 0

Under almost impossible conditions, Carroll defeated Thiel by a 12-0 margin at Hosford. Even though rain fell throughout the whole game, causing a total of twenty fumbles, Coach Ray's squad outplayed the Greenville Club. Touchdowns were scored by Bill Marks, whose two-yard plunge climaxed a forty-yard drive in the second quarter and another by Pete Pucher on a forty-yard rollout which ended a sixty-five-yard march in the third period. Carroll gained a total of two hundred and sixty-seven yards as opposed to the Tomcats net of minus eight.

O'Malley pitches to halfback Frank Walton for a gain against Wayne State.

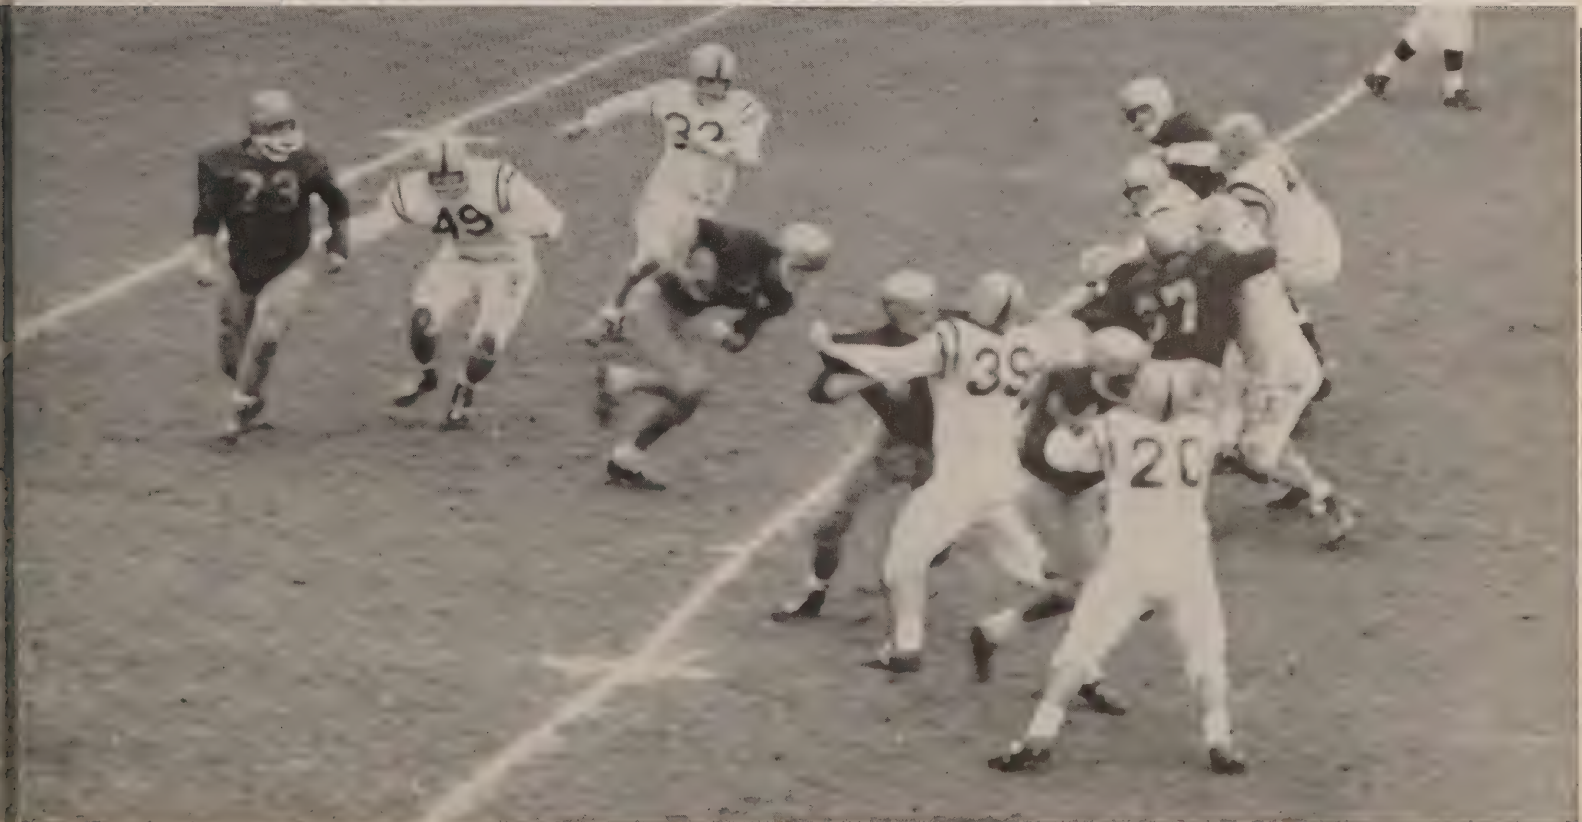


. . . to Bob Fitzgerald for a Touchdown.

CARROLL 20 — RESERVE 0

The Blue Streaks racked up their sixth straight victory with a very decisive 20-0 win over Western Reserve at Clark Field. All three of Carroll's touchdowns were made through the air. Schweickert scampered for two tallies on screen and flare passes. Bob Fitzgerald scored a third touchdown in the second period on a pass from Schweickert.

A would-be Thiel back gains slight yardage against Lou Thomas and Bob Fitzgerald.



Fullback Bill Marks charges the Thiel line.

CARROLL 20—WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON 0

Carroll wrapped up its first undefeated season in thirty-nine years of football by downing Washington and Jefferson 20-0. The muddy, slippery field didn't prevent the Streaks from scoring their fifth shutout victory of the season. Bill Marks dashed fifteen yards in the first period to climax a seventy-yard drive in eight plays. Minutes later the Streaks drove seventy-five yards in eleven plays with Frank Walton scampering the final five yards. In the final period, a recovered fumble enabled Carroll to put the game on ice, as Jerry Schweickert cracked three yards for the final tally.

Jerry Schweickert snags a touchdown pass to score against Case.

Homecoming

Ideal autumn weather provided a perfect setting for Carroll's annual Homecoming week-end of October 18. Chairman Bill Harmon did an admirable job of running a full program of events smoothly and at rapid-fire pace.

A spirited Friday night bonfire rally, at which time the football team was presented by coach John Ray, initiated the week-end festivities. Mounting spirits reached their peak Saturday morning as a gala Homecoming Parade, featuring Dolan Hall's winning entry "Waynewood Sandwich" and "sport cars" of all description, rolled its merry way to Hosford Field, scene of Carroll's 40-0 victory over Wayne State.

Climax to the proceedings came at the annual dance, on the University campus, Saturday night. Over 1,900 students, alumni, and their guests witnessed the crowning of Miss Margaret Wirscham as Queen Carrollyn XII by Alumni President, Raymond Turk. The remainder of the evening was given to dancing, with rhythmic tempos provided by Billy Lang and his orchestra.

Little Theatre Society

Under the direction of Mr. Leone J. Marinello, the Little Theatre Society successfully presented its Fall play, The Living Room by Graham Greene. The theme of the presentation explored the endless dramatic conflicts a Catholic encounters in trying to love God and be "happy" simultaneously.

Centered on the dilemma of an eternal triangle, the play was focused against a background of "dead goodness." The girl has been consigned to the care of her domineering aunts and uncle, a crippled priest. She finds little to comfort her in this loveless, coldly religious atmosphere, and develops an affair with the married executor of her father's will. Eventually, solution to the problem is found with trust in the Infinite mercy. Members of the cast included: Mary Coyne, Segrid Walden, Jack Barnhart, and John Kenny.

Blue Barron

The Military Ball this year, under the direction of Paul Bott, Scabbard and Blade President, attained its greatest success in the school's history. With Blue Barron's orchestra providing musical renditions of the "Thirties", a record 750 couples danced in the exotic atmosphere of the theme, "A Pass in Paris." The dance was held in the gym amid the splendorous decor of a Paris sidewalk cafe.

The crowd stood silent as the imposing array of beauties in the Honorary Colonel contest promenaded under the glitter of the Scabbard and Blade detail of salute. Miss Nancy Wilkes was crowned "Honorary Colonel" by Col. LaCour. Master of Ceremonies Jim Mason, closed the proceedings by the well-deserved recognition to the dance committee.

Festively decorated with gay colors and cheerful rhythms, the atmosphere of old New Orleans made its annual appearance at J.C.U., on the weekend of February 27, and was welcomed by an overflow crowd of Carroll men and their dates. Sponsored jointly by the French and Spanish clubs, the preparations were conducted under the able auspices of Dan Van Belleghem.

Joe Fortunato's orchestra provided the sparkling interpretations of songs both old and new as more than 450 couples enjoyed the final pre-Lenten social activity of the year.

The preparations for this dance surpassed any other dance this year. Five float entries competed for the coveted gold cup, which was retained by Iota Chi Upsilon. The I Chi's artistic "Mission of San Louis Rey" won in close competition with the Commerce Club C. C.D., Alpha Kappa Psi, and Dolan Hall entries.

Ellen Wahlen was crowned queen of the Mardi Gras by a panel of judges from the French Department. After the presentation the air was filled with balloons sauntering down from the balcony above, as the orchestra struck up more happy melodies.

Stunt Night

The lambasting antics of a "Gunfight at O.K. Carroll" and the subtle comedy of "Johnny Yokum goes to College" highlighted the annual Stunt Night on March 5. A standing room only crowd packed the auditorium early, and their anticipation was fully rewarded as all five skits showed good preparation and clever originality. As tradition will have it, the seniors won, the juniors were second, and the evening college was third.

The freshmen initiated the evening with a skit depicting the typical freshmen entering Carroll and being introduced to the "ways" of the school by the sophomores. The sophomores added international flavor as they presented "The Kremlin visits Carroll". Third on the agenda was the evening college with a strong entry in "Yogi Bear Goes to College". The junior western "Gunfight at O.K. Carroll" and "Johnny Yokum goes to College" by the class of '60, rounded out the entertainment, and, to use a theatrical expression, "left them rolling in the aisles".

Dan Van Belleghem ably directed the whole evening, and the highpoint came as Dan presented the winner's trophy to John Conomy, director of the senior skit.

Dick Lowe the emcee preformed very ably as his light humor kept the audience from ever losing attention. Between the acts Carroll's musical talent reared its rythmic head with the Marquees, Reginald Dawkins and pianist Dave Korn displaying their abilities.

University

The "Sound of Music" filled the Carroll Campus with the Little Singers of Paris initiating this years University Series.

Perhaps the most analytical treatment of drama and the theater was presented by the well-known Broadway and Hollywood actress, Miss Julie Haydon.

Curtain call! (A portion of a Series audience) is seen prior to the opening of another delightful evening of entertainment.

University Series

Under the direction of Rev. Herman S. Hughes S.J., the second annual University Series again met with community-wide acclaim. The "Series" was initiated to present to the students, alumni and community, entertainment opportunities that are not otherwise possible.

Early in October, the program was initiated by the ever-popular Little Singers Of Paris who presented a repertoire from Gregorian chant to popular song. Carefully chosen and masterfully trained the group has appeared before the late Pope Pius XII and the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

A well-known Broadway and Hollywood actress, Miss Julie Haydon appeared in a program based on the works of George Jean Nathan, G. B. Shaw, Tennessee Williams, and William Saroyan. The production was supervised by Sir Cedric Hardwicke.

Appearing in Shakespeare's rollicking comedy "Taming Of The Shrew", the Canadian Players under the direction of Douglas Campbell performed to another standing room crowd. This touring company rivals the Old Vic Players in England.

In one of the most scintillating performances in the entire "Series", Hal Holbrook appeared as Mark Twain before two packed houses. His appearance at Carroll commemorated the fiftieth anniversary of the death of the famous humorist. Mr. Holbrook has mastered the Twain Character as no other performer before, and has met with international acclaim in a recent tour.

A former Metropolitan Opera prima donna, Miss Mimi Benzell performed during the latter part of February. Miss Benzell was presented to the students in one of the Friday convocations and scored an overwhelming success with her rendition of opera and modern hits.

In the closing performance, the Rod Strong Dance Quartet presented a recital that ranged from classic ballet, to folk and jazz dances. After the intermission, satire and mimicry took over, and the hilarious "Dying Duck" encore, patterned after the famous "Dying Swan" ballet left all four performers dead on stage, the audience wiping away tears of laughter.

University Series audiences will tell you that "classics" and "pops" do mix, especially when sung by the talented Miss Mimi Benzell.

A home-spun humorist with a unique philosophy of life was recreated in the person of Hal Holbrook's "Mark Twain Tonight".

Original dances, ranging from the classical baroque of Scarlatti to the hoedown and blues of Americana were interpreted by Rod Strong and his Dance Quartette.

Band

The University Band was organized in 1931 to promote student interest in music. The group acts as a spirit booster during sporting events, and presents a number of concerts with the University Glee Club.

The spring semester is formal concert time for the Band; this year it presented two concerts in the University auditorium. The bandsmen performed with Barat College in February and also at the May Pops Concert.

On March 6, the group sponsored a music festival for high school bands from the Northeastern Ohio area. Participation in the St. Patrick's Day parade and Federal Inspection were also part of the organization's activities.

Fr. Muenzer, the new moderator, saw the organization run smoothly under the direction of officers Anthony Klemer, Larry Marsalek, and Dave Boslett.

Glee Club

Under the direction of Jack T. Hearns, the John Carroll University Glee Club participated in a full schedule of events including concerts, special appearances, and tours.

The outstanding activity for the songsters this year was a most successful tour of the Midwest in March. The Glee Club made impressive appearances in joint concerts with Barat College in Chicago, Alverno in Milwaukee and Mary Manse in Toledo. Again in April, the club went East, appearing in Buffalo, New York.

In the Greater Cleveland area, the Glee Club made an appearance on January 16, at the Cleveland-Sheraton Hotel for a convention.

The group's on-campus performances included entertaining at the Freshman Parents Day in November. A joint concert with Barat College Glee Club was the big event in February, while the annual Pops Concert in May rounded out a very successful year of activities.

Officers for the year were Tim Strader, President; Dick Vogel, Vice-President; Denny Dempsey, Secretary; and Dan Selhorst, business manager. Fr. Muenzer was moderator.

Hot debate ensues at Union meeting.

The Carroll Union is the official student governing body at the University. It serves as the vital link between the administration and the student body. Every student is a member through his class or organization.

The general aims of the Union are: (1) to develop a sense of responsibility among the students; (2) to develop the powers of self government; (3) to aid in the planning of all student activities. At its meeting every Tuesday the members discuss current topics of interest to the students and seek to remedy any possible areas of conflict. In addition to its role as an overseer of all student affairs, the Union also sponsors the Frosh Hello Week and Stunt Night.

Officers for the current year were Jim Shannon, Paul Flask, Joyce Derda, and Ed Parks. Moderator of the Union was Dr. Richard J. Spath.

Who's Who

Voted annually to the Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are those seniors who have most distinguished themselves by scholarship and/or extra-curricular activities. The 1960 members were prominent in diverse fields which ranged from honor fraternities, student government, and editorships to science academies, business groups, and athletics. Nominations were made by the members of the student government with final acceptance being made by the respective deans.

CECES

The Center of East and Central European Studies is a student organization designed to study the social, ideological, political economic, and religious problems which are current in the countries of East and Central Europe.

One of the important activities of the club was presenting regular forums on the present existing strategy of the Soviet Union with guest speakers presenting their views.

Although the club is relatively new, it has received wide acceptance on campus. Under the guidance of moderator Dr. Michael S. Pap and officers Larry Kalousek, Pat Mettress, R. Klepetko, R. Barkett, and R. Mushock in conjunction with the History and Political Science Department, it has stimulated an interest in the affairs of the Soviet Union and its neighboring countries. With their broad field and vital national questions, the CECES should continue to grow in interest and members.

Delta Mu Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity was installed on the Carroll campus in the Spring of 1956. Among the fraternity's various objectives, the furthering of the individual member's development, the fostering of scientific research in the fields of commerce and finance, and the promotion of courses leading to degrees in business administration, are most outstanding.

In keeping with its objectives, the group conducted its annual Thanksgiving food drive and participated in numerous campus activities. One of the featured speakers at fraternity's meetings was Mr. Raymond T. Livingstone, vice-president of Thompson-Ramo-Woolridge.

Fraternity officers for the year were: Jerry Rachfal, president; Robert Budka, vice president; Gilbert Kenehan, secretary; and Pat Cronin, treasurer. Dr. Arthur J. Noetzel Dean of the School of Business, acted as group moderator.

CCD

The Confraternity of Christian Doctrine is an organization of Carroll men that works for Catholic action. Throughout the year the members of the C.C.D. spent long hours after classes and on weekends, bringing the teachings of the Catholic Church to the inmates and patients of the Detention Home, Hudson Boy's Farm, the Warrensville Workhouse, and Highlandview Hospital.

The C.C.D. entered a prize winning float in the Mardi Gras, and presented informative slides in the lobby of the Student Activities Building relating to their activities.

Directing the activities of the C.C.D. was moderator Fr. Kmieck. The officers for the year were Tom Bausch, president; Joe Radigan, vice-president; Dave Filimon, treasurer; and Dick Hanusz, secretary.

Sodality

The Sodality of the Annunciation has as its objective, the perfecting of the men of Carroll, through greater devotion to our Blessed Lady. While acting as a basis and guide for the spiritual lives of the students, the Sodality has an extensive program that encourages the student body in their spiritual, academic, and social lives.

Among the achievements of the Sodality this year were the five-day Leadership Retreat, the Christmas Dance, and the "sock hops". The very successful Winterlude Dance was also sponsored by the Sodality. These, coupled with the days of recollection and inter-Sodality functions, provided a full and enjoyable year for the members.

The officers for the year were, John Kimler, Prefect; Nick Fillo, Vice-Prefect; Tom Quirk, secretary; and Ed Hinko, treasurer. Fr. Schell acted as spiritual leader for the group.

The University Club is newly founded service organization which provides valuable assistance in the promotion of the various stage shows throughout the school year. Designed primarily to assist as an usher group for the University Series, the club has expanded its services to other events by controlling ticket sales and house direction. Officers for the pledge group were Thomas Crogan, Steve Bazzano, Ed Bierman, and Dick Fromholtz.

NFCCS

Senior delegate James Murphy conducts the Regional NFCCS meeting.

The National Federation of Catholic College Students is an organization which represents students from more than two hundred colleges and universities in the United States. Its purpose is to promote Catholic interests in the educational world. Carroll's chapter, represented by Greg Louviaux, James Murphy, and Larry Kalousek, is one of the more active groups in the organization.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary collegiate journalism fraternity, was introduced at John Carroll in 1948. Its purpose is to extend recognition to outstanding students active in journalism at the University. Membership is accepted from the three student publications.

Under the direction of officers Bill Wagner, John Lovas, and Joseph Rini; the fraternity sponsored various lectures by outstanding men in the field.

Debating Society

At the close of the year the Debate Society had posted an impressive record in their various tournaments throughout the academic year. Having competed with over eighty colleges and universities, the debaters gained greater respect for the Carroll name. Assistance from Dr. Austin Freeley who served as moderator, gave the organization valuable training which accounted for their many wins. Officers for the year were James O'Sullivan, Gene Kramer, Bob Kriedler, and Kailash Bagaria.

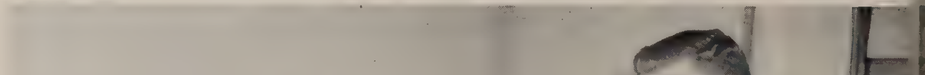
The Scientific Academy is organized to provide students with an opportunity to gain a broad knowledge of the current developments in the world of science. Through participation in lecture forums, the members are acquainted with the method of scientific research by presenting lectures on more recent developments. The group also invited guest lecturers from other universities to speak on the fields of biochemistry and embryology.

Officers of the Academy this year were John Slosar, president; Joseph Morrissey, vice-president; Richard Pamula, secretary; and Jack Hrinda, treasurer. Rev. Phillip H. Vogel S.J. was the organization's moderator.



Two Academy members, Scott Morrissey and Ron Klepetko, check their quantitative results.

A C S

In 1949, the American Chemical Society chartered a chapter of student affiliates at John Carroll University. The society seeks to promote social and intellectual welfare as well as the professional development of its members. Interest in chemistry is promoted through its annual award to the outstanding member who has contributed most to its program.

Highlights of the 1959-60 school year included field trips to various industrial concerns in the Cleveland area. Regular meetings which featured prominent guest speakers of the profession, were presided over by Moderator Dr. Edmund B. Thomas and President D. Wysocki.

The Association of the United States Army is a campus military organization for students in the advanced corps of R.O.T.C. Its purpose is to acquaint the public with national defense needs and army life.

The year's highlights featured a "Who's Where" directory, listing the location and activities of recent Carroll R.O.T.C. graduates now on active duty in the army. Social events included an "Initiation Dance" for new members and a cocktail party for the entire Company prior to the Spring Prom in May.

Club Officers for 1959-60 were: Pat Wagner, Captain; Leonard Piowtroski, 1st. Lt.; Martin Haitz, 2nd. Lt.; Martin Regan, 1st. Sgt. Faculty advisor for the group was Major Robert W. Gentleman.

Scabbard and Blade

The National Society of Scabbard and Blade was chartered as H Company, 10th Regiment in 1953. It is a national honorary military society whose purpose is to raise the standards of military education in American Colleges and Universities. Merit, scholarship, and enrollment in the advanced course are the basis of membership.

The officers included Paul Bott, Captain; Frank Dempsey, 1st Lt.; James Mason, 2nd Lt.; and Robert Fitzharris, 1st Sgt. Captain Albert A. Helker served as faculty advisor.

In conjunction with the Cleveland chapter of the American Red Cross, S&B sponsors two blood drives each year. This year the members solicited over 500 pints of blood.

The Scabbard and Blade was in complete charge of the very successful Military Ball. Other social activities sponsored by the S&B were a fall initiation banquet and a spring dinner dance.

FISHERS

FISHER FOODS
Master Markets

When you trade in your school books for bank books
And start buying groceries for real
Your green will go farther at Fishers
And give you a square of a meal
